A FLEET IN FLAMES.

Million Dollar Fire At the Cairo Wharf.

The City of Natchez, the H. S. Hayes and Four Barges Destroyed—Loss to the Insurance Men Very Heavy.

CIAO, ILL., Dec. 28.—Fire at 6 o'clock this morning destroyed the Mississippi Valley Transportation steamer R. S. Hayes and four barges and the Anchor Line steamer City of Natchez while lying at the wharf. The fire is supposed to have originated in the aft cabin of the steamer Hayes, soon enveloping the whole boat, hurling her to the water's edge. The fire spread to the City of Natchez, lying just below the Hayes, and in a few moments she too was a mass of flames. The barges along side the Hayes, loaded with cotton, soda ash and sundries, also took fire and were completely destroyed. Nothing but the wrecks of the burned hulls remained. The City of Natchez was built at Jeffersonville three years ago and was valued at $10,000. She was one of the finest boats on the Mississippi. The Hayes was built by the Valley Company about five years ago and valued at about $30,000. The loss of the Valley barges and contents will make the total loss reach about $1,000,000. The insurance is heavy, but it is not known at the present time. A strong northwest wind at the time of the fire held the boats into the bank and prevented tugs from saving the fleet. Two barges lying on the outside of those burned were cut loose and towed to safe harbor by tugs. The wrecked burning hulls are being towed to the other side of the river and beached.

COLLAPSE OF A TANK.

Causing the Death of Three Men and the Destruction of Valuable Property.

East St. Louis, Ill., Dec. 28.—Three men were killed this afternoon by the collapse of a large water-tank in Helm's brewery. The iron girders supporting the tank were contracted by the cold weather, and snapped in pieces about 2:30 p. m. The tank fell thirty feet, striking and wrecking an ice-machine. The wreck of the ice-machine was followed by the escape of large quantities of ammonia gas, that enveloped and suffocated the workmen. John Kieffer was instantly killed by the collapse. John Burke and James Turner were injured and suffocated by ammonia. The dead men are single. James Power and Clem Reveler sustained fracture of the leg. The damage to the brewery is $10,000.

Steamboat Boarding-House Burned, with the Probable Loss of Twenty-Four Lives.

Mobile, Ala., Dec. 28.—The steamboat Bradish Johnson, used as a boarding-house at Jackson, Ala., where the West Alabama railroad bridge is building, was burned at noon last night. Two whites, Odis McElroy, of Mobile, and Dan Milhouse, of New York, are missing, and two negroes, Lewis Adams and Ben Bush, were drowned. It is believed that ten others, all negroes, perished in the flames, and ten others were drowned.

Three Men Killed in an Explosion.

The dead are Sol Blythe, a pit boss, head broken off; Charles Carson, workman, blown to fragments. Tim injured are Ted Hennison, who will die; O. R. Armstrong, engineer, slightly injured, will recover. The boiler head was blown through the coal-car and a distance of a quarter of a mile beyond. No cause for the accident is assigned.

Woman Burned to a Crisp.

SERGANTON, Pa., Dec. 28.—Last evening Mrs. John Burke, of Irving Avenue, while going upstairs with a lighted lamp, fell to the bottom and was stunned. The lamp exploded and set her clothing on fire. Before she could be rescued she was burned almost to a crisp. Her husband, who is blind, was unable to render any assistance, but his cries brought help to the house, which, however, unfortunately arrived too late.

Lost His Life Insurance.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 28.—Senator Logan received a life insurance policy of $5,000 in the Penn Mutual for a number of years. He paid in premiums during the period of insurance upwards of $3,000. Last year he was not able to meet his premium, and, as the company would not give any time, he gave up the policy.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Dec. 28.—Otto, the twelve-year-old son of Joseph Haim, the millionaire planter of Franklin County, died Saturday from the effects of drinking whisky. The boy, while returning home from Ozark with two men, was given a jug of liquor and induced to drink, with fatal results.

CONFESSED.

Wittrock Wenkens and Tell the Whole Story—Large Amount of the Money Recovered.

LEAVENWORTH, KAN., Dec. 29.—Wittrock, one of the men arrested on the charge of robbing the Adams Express car some weeks ago, was brought before last evening. To-day was weakened, and has made a full confession of the robbery, but it can not be stated who are his accomplices. A large amount of money has been recovered, it having been concealed in a box under a barn, near the house. The detectives were taken to the spot last night and the box dug up. It was brought to this city by Cook, and concealed by him and three other young men, whose names are not now known. The amount of money recovered is stated to be $10,000.

CHICAGO, Dec. 29.—It is stated that confi- cing proofs of Haught's complicity in the Frisco express robbery is in possession of the Times affirms that he has information from an undoubted source that Russia and Germany signed a direct alliance a fortnight ago. "The Czar," adds the correspondent, "was decided to taking this course by the attitude manifested toward Russia by Count Kalacky, Austro-Hungarian Minister of Foreign Affairs, and by the expectation that M. Floquet would be made Prince Minister of France. This shrewd," concludes the correspondent, "but the reported alliance between Russia and France was but a chimera."

VIENNA, Dec. 30.—It is rumored here that Russia and Turkey have agreed to send a joint ultimatum to Bulgaria, ordering the Government to comply with their demands under pain of the occupation of Roumania.

Nothing definite has been received from the Prince of Minsk. Odessa telegrams, however, report that intimate friends of the Prince have received more hopeful news, presumably from the Prince himself.

BERLIN, Dec. 30.—The removal of the snow which fell in the late storm has revealed an appalling loss of life. Many travelers were overtaken by the storm.

Five bodies were found in Saxony, thirty in Thuringia and forty in Southern Germany. It is estimated that the total loss of life will be nearly two hundred.

WAR WHETHER OR NO.

Three Hundred Thousand Russian Troops

Entered the Caucasus.

VIENNA, Dec. 30.—The Vienna press is becoming convinced that Russia is determined to wage war. Reports of increased Russian armaments are continually coming to hand from various sources. The latest intelligence of this kind is to the effect that 300,000 Russian troops have been ordered to mass in Kleff, and that the occupants of 10,000 houses have received official notification that soldiers will soon be billeted in them. The New Freie Presse plainly hints that the best thing Austria can do is to submit to Russia's wishes in order to avoid a conflict. The Tagblatt and other papers bitterly deplore the fact that Austria is compelled to abandon the Balkan programme because she has been left in the lurch by Prince Bismarck, who has made peace with Russia."

The Body of John A. Logan Laid in State in the Rotunda of the Capitol.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 30.—The funeral cortège reached the capitol at 1:30. The interior of the vast dome was tastefully draped and upon the spot where many who have made their mark in America history have lain in state rested the bier to receive the casket of the dead Senator. The committee and the honorary pall-bearers filed in, forming as they halted a double line between which the casket was borne to its place of repose. The pall-bearers retired and the spectators were requested to withdraw. When at two o'clock the doors were again opened, the lid of the casket had been removed, military guards of honor, fully uniformed and accoutred, stood at rest at the head and foot and on either side of the casket, white lines of Grand Army men were drawn up from door to door, between which thousands of people passed to view the remains.

A man cannot be a robber of a public treasury and be a Democrat, according to the Jacks-nion acceptance of the term, and Jacksonian Democracy is a pretty good variety to it. When a public plunderer is found masquerading as a Democrat we want to see him punished.
We want to see all the thieves and boodlers driven out of the Democratic party, where they have no right to be. There are other and more congenial fields for them to forage in.—Cincinnati Sun.

The State of Kentucky has furnished the United States with two residents, Confederate States with one President, other states with no less than fifty Governors and Lieutenant-Governors. She has been represented in the Cabinet by one

Secretary of State, three Secretaries of War, six Postmaster Generals, and has also supported and supported the Supreme Court of the United States with six distinguished sons. Four times has a Kentuckian been elected Speaker of the House of Representatives.—Flemingsburg Gazette.

What a grand and glorious thing it is to live in a close State. Before the last election a Kentuckian had but little show, now they can get most anything they want. Sam Walton worked a year to get a position where they have the most kind of fevers and did not succeed until after the November election.
Then he said the position did not suit him, and that he didn't want it, and that he wanted another and better position, and he got it. Ex-Governor Leslie has been appointed Governor of Montana, and several other Kentuckians have received good positions. When Hayes was acting as President, Ohio got everything. New York had fared well under Arthur, but it now looks like Kentucky would lead New York. If things would continue this way awhile we might get the Presidency, but Republican papers are springing up all over the State to help swell the Democratic majority next August. Then we can quietly soliloquize to ourselves, "it might have been," had it not been for the new Republican newspapers.
—Bracken Chronicle.

The postal law makes it a large to take a newspaper and refuse to pay for it. A newspaper in Illinois recently brought suit against forty-three men who would not pay their subscriptions, and obtained judgement in each for the full amount of the claim. Of these, twenty-eight men made affidavit that they owned no more property than the law allowed them, thus preventing attachment. Then they, under the decision of the Supreme Court, were arrested for petty larceny, and bound over in the sum of $300 each. All but six gave bonds, while six went to jail.—Ex.

Since Mrs. Cleveland has returned home it has turned out that she went to New York to shop and buy dresses. The report is that the new dresses have been ordered without train, or dancing length, as the dressmakers say and, what is more startling yet, it is said that Mrs. Cleveland intends to give one or two dancing parties in the White House as soon as the official mourning for Arthur is over. Mrs.
Cleveland is passionately fond of young folks society. She loves to dance, and enjoy all the debutantes.
She is not much more than a debutante herself, because she went to Europe just after leaving school and came back to America to be married. She has had no chance to go into society, and she intends to do so this winter, and her friends think she is right. When the subject of dancing parties was broached to President he would not listen to it. Then Mrs. Cleveland got out some old hooks showing pictures of dancing in the Executive Mansion during former Presidents' terms, and finally she mentioned that a stately minuet or square dance would be no harm, and finally she carried her point with the President, as she always does.
Naturally, there is much flutter in society over the rumor that there will be dancing parties at the White House, and many say they will not believe it until they receive invitations.—Baltimore American.

The following resolutions on the death of Tommy Lyttleton were adopted by the C. L. S. C.

Whereas, The Angel of Death has waved his somber pinion over the household of one of our circle, and our friends now mourn the untimely death of bright and beautiful boy.

RESOLVED, That the Chautauqua Circle of Louisa tender their warmest sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. Lyttleton in their hours of bereavement, and knowing that no words of ours can mitigate such grief as theirs, we can only command them for consolation to the Good Father in whose bosom their beloved now sleeps.

RESOLVED, That these resolutions be spread on the record of the Circle, and that a copy be sent to Mr. and Mrs. Lyttleton, and that they be published in the Big SANDY NEWS. G. W. WROTE, Pres.

MAGGIE HATCHER, Sec'y.

The news of the drowning of Tommy Lyttleton was received by our community with much sorrow and regret. This sad accident occurred on Christmas night, about 11 o'clock, as Prof. Lyttleton and family were setting on board the steamer Ingomar, on which they intended to go to Pikeville. The unfortunate child stepped between the wharf and steamboat and was never seen again. Search for the body was begun at once. The next morning (Sunday) a thorough search was begun and was continued almost without cessation during the day. No services were held at the M. E. Church, South, as a large number of the people were aiding in some way in the search for the body. Considerable searching was done through the following week, but it was all in vain. Tommy was an exceedingly bright and intelligent little boy, of seven years of age.

The deepest sympathies and tenderest feelings of this entire community are with the family.

FARM AND FIRESIDE.

—Keep up the boiling for one hour, when the egg will be, when broken, light, mealy and a most digestible article of diet.—American Dairymen.

—Doughnuts: One cup sour milk, one egg, one cup of sugar, one teaspoonful of salt, two-thirds teaspoonful of cinnamon, one tablespoonful of saleratus, and flour to roll. Roll thin, cut in rings and fry in very hot lard.—Boston Bulletin.

—To prevent ivory knife-handles from being cracked, never let knife-blades stand in hot water as is sometimes done to make them wash easily. The heat expands the steel which runs into the handle a very little and this cracks the ivory. Knife-handles should never lie in water. A handsome knife, or one used for cooking, is easily spoiled in this way.—Albany Journal.

—In common with clay, calcareous earth possesses the power of making sandy soils more close and firm, and, in common with sand, the power of making clay soils lighter, or more open and mellow. When sand and clay thus alter the texture of soils, their operation is altogether mechanical; but calcareous earth must exert chemical action in producing such effects, as its power is far greater than that of either sand or clay.—N. Y. Herald.

—A simple "layer cake" is made as follows: Mix one cup of sugar with butter the size of an egg, one cup of milk, one well beaten egg and enough flour to make a rather stiff batter, sift one heaping teaspoonful of baking powder with the flour. Bake in three layer enameled pans. For the filling mix one cup of sugar with the juice and grated rind of a lemon, three teaspoonfuls of corn starch mixed with a little water and a cup of hot water. Boil until thick and spread on the cakes.—Boston Post.

—"In preparing fowls for the show room," says the Poultry Monthly, "give a diet of barley and buckwheat daily for the morning feed, vegetables and rice, or corn-meal boiled in milk for the mid-day meal, and a full ration of whole wheat and sound corn late in the evening. To this diet may be added during the day, a handful of sunflower seed and hemp seed, which will prove highly advantageous toward heightening the color of comb and wattles, and giving a rich gloss to the plumage."

—Flour Pudding: One quart of sweet milk; wet and stir smoothly into a little of this cold milk six tablespoonsfuls of flour. When the remainder of the milk boils, stir in this wet flour, boil ten minutes more and set away to cool. When cold, add the well-beaten yolks of six eggs, then the whites, which have been beaten to a foam that will pile up; now beat this into the cold pudding until it all looks even and light. Bake another half-hour and serve hot with the sauce mentioned above. This sauce is excellent on plain boiled rice, plain bread or Indian puddings.—The Caterer.

HOW TO JUDGE SHEEP.

Some of the Principal Points Giving Evidence of Good Qualities.

Purity of blood is invaluable, especially in the male sheep, as he is chiefly to be relied on when crossing or improving the breed is desired. The English down-sows are considered the best for producing first-class mutton, while the merinoes are remembered for producing the finest wool. The principal points sought for in sheep are those that give evidence of their fattening properties; a straight back, broad loins, roundness of body are valuable points. A good formed mutton is one with plenty of flesh, evenly put on, and as little bone as possible. The following gives requirements for mutton sheep: Head moderately fine; nostrils wide, eyes prominent; ears broad, moderately long, thin and covered with short hair; collar full from breast and shoulders, tapering gradually all the way to where the back and head join; neck short, thick and strong and free from coarse and loose skin; shoulders broad and full and at the same time join so gradually to the collar forward and the chine backward as not to leave the last hollow in either place; fore legs, the mutton on the armor or fore-thigh should come quite to the knee; leg with heavy bone and upright, clear from superfluous skin, should stand out square and well apart; breast, broad and well forward, keeping the legs wide apart; girth or chest, full and deep; fore flank quite full, not showing hollow behind shoulder; back and loins, broad, flat and straight, from which the ribs must spring with a fine circular arch. Belly, straight on under line; quarters, long and full, with mutton quite down to the hock; hock should stand neither in nor out, but straight; twist or junction inside the thighs, deep, wide and full, with a broad breast, will keep the legs open and upright; the whole body should be covered with wool, of a close texture, of good length and fine quality.—Practical Farmer.

Cooking Food for Cattle.

Prof. Wallace has been urging the use of cooked food for cattle. He quotes the experience of a feeder in the eastern countries who adopted the system of soaking the fodder with hot water. The dry fodder, which may be wheat, barley or oat straw, is chaffed and laid out in a heap on a good level floor, and the concentrated food mixed with it. Hot water is then thrown over the pile until the water begins to ooze out at the base. The gentleman referred to who used wheat and barley straw, fed 108 fat bullocks and 36 young cattle for about fifteen weeks on an average. The labor was not much increased, and the boiling of the necessary water took only about $\frac{1}{2}$ hundred weight of coal per week. His report is that he never had animals do so uniformly well.—Lowton (Eng.) Cor. Country Gentlemen.
